01 PAD London October 11-17

Like too many events last year, PAD London's 2020 iteration was cancelled. But this brilliant art and design show, which brings dozens of galleries from around the world to the heart of Mayfair, is set to return to Berkeley Square, W1, on October 11-17. Its website is the best place to discover the list of exhibiting galleries. The always excellent Sarah Myerscough Gallery, a regular participant, will be there, bringing along new pieces by the award-winning designer and furniture maker John Makepeace OBE. Shown here is his new 'Trine Cloud Chair II' in scorched oak. padesignart.com

02 Decorex October 10-13

Incredibly, this will be the 43rd year Decorex has pulled together its unique collection of designers, makers and specialists as well as a great programme of talks by interior designers including Sophie Ashby and Samantha Todhunter. Shown below is 'Les Songes Toscans' wallcovering by Arte, whose stand will be a highlight of the show. decorx.com | arte-international.com

03 London Design Festival September 18-26

The LDF is back from September 18-26 with a huge range of exhibitions around London. We are excited about the city's latest creative hotspot - Greenwich Peninsula. As well as Design District, a phenomenal-looking site with new buildings by the likes of 6A Architects and Adam Khan Architects, Magazine London is a new exhibition space that will host the inaugural Design London, a large-scale show of contemporary furniture, lighting and accessories. Check the websites for events. londondesignfestival.com | designdistrict.co.uk □
